FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

PARIS, JUNE 30.

ARMY OF THE SAMBRE AND MEUSE.

Jourdan, commander in chief of the army of the Sambre and Meuſe to the Executive Directory.

Head-Quarters at Coblentz, June 20.

"CITIZEN DIRECTORS,

"I have the honor to inform you, that that part of the army which was to retreat by Nieuwied, paſſed the river the day before yeſterday in the greateſt order, and without loſing a ſingle man, tho' in the preſence of ſix regiments of the enemy's cavalry, and of ſeveral battalions of infantry, ſupported by twelve pieces of cannon. The enemy endeavored to deſtroy the bridge by two rafts which they launched againſt it; the firſt, without breaking it entirely, ſo far deranged it, that it required ſeveral hours to re-eſtabliſh it; but this was ſoon done by the zeal, activity, and talents of Citizen Tirlet, captain of artillery, who commanded the workmen on the bridge; the ſecond raft was ſtopped before it had reached the bridge.

"While the bridge was repairing, the army took a poſition on the Suynbach: whence it reſumed its march in the greateſt order: the retreat was covered by the cavalry and two battalions of the 30th half-brigade, under the command of brigadier Arnaud.—Theſe two battalions and the third regiment of light-horſe, led by Colonel Grosjean, diſtinguiſhed themſelves by the coolneſs and preciſion which they diſplayed in their manœuvres, which were executed under the fire of the enemy's artillery. At length, at eleven at night, that part of the bridge of Nieuwied, which extends over the right branch of the Rhine, was reſtored without accident.

"General Kleber, who was retreating on the Sieg, was yeſterday attacked in the poſt of Ukeradt, at two in the morning. The enemy's attack was ſo ſudden, that he deemed it leſs dangerous to riſk a battle than to continue his retreat. He therefore made the neceſſary diſpoſitions, and marched againſt the aſſailants; he even beat back the heads of the enemy's firſt columns, but perceiving a conſiderable force, particularly in cavalry, advancing on his two flanks, he returned to his firſt poſition, and there maintained himſelf.

"The action ceaſed at three in the afternoon. The general was to reſume his march in the night, to gain the lines of Duſſeldorff. During our retreat, ſeveral partial actions took place, the particulars of which I cannot ſend you, as I have not yet received them; but our troops invariably diſplayed both courage and ſkill, and not a ſingle poſt was forced, ſo that our retreat was conducted with the greateſt order.

"I cannot, Citizens Directors, ſufficiently praiſe the courage, coolneſs, and perſeverance of the troops, who fought for three days, and purſued their march in the night; neither ſtragglers nor fugitives were to be ſeen; never did the army appear to greater advantage than during this retreat: and this is the time to judge of the conduct both of officers and privates.

"The general officers merit the higeſt commendations; by their talents, their courage, and the preciſion with which they executed my commands: they confirmed the courage of the ſoldier, and inſpired him with that confidence which averts diſaſter.

"Health and reſpect,

"JOURDAN."

ARMY OF THE RHINE AND MOSELLE.

Hauſſman, commiſſary of the government, to the Executive Directory.

"STRASBURGH, JUNE 23.
11 in the morning.

"Your orders are executed. The army paſſed the Rhine this morning at two o'clock. Kehl is our own, with all its formidable batteries.——Generals Deſaix, Beaupon, and Fernio are purſuing the enemy with vigour. The action ſtill continues. A great extent of territory, and a number of villages, are already occupied by our troops. The enemy is quite ſtupified by an attack as warm as it was unexpected. From five to ſix hunderd priſoners are already taken, with ſeveral caſſoons and pieces of cannon.

"It is not poſſible to beſtow ſufficient commendation on the bravery of the army, on the preciſion, and particularly on the diſcretion with which the buſineſs has been conducted. Yeſterday morning 30,000 men were in the environs of Straſburg, and nobody knew their real deſtination. At Neuſtadt, it was ſuppoſed, yeſterday morning the head quarters were going to Turkheim, when they were directing their march to Straſburg. From ſuch unanimity every thing is to be expected.

"I have juſt left the commander in Chief, as he was paſſing the Rhine. He will ſend off an extraordinary courier to night with farther particulars of this glorious expedition.

"Health and greeting.

"W. HAUSSMAN."

Buonaparte, general in chief of the army in Italy, to the Executive Directory.

"Head Quarters at Tortona.

"The inſtant I heard that the campaign was opened on the Rhine, I marched a column to the banks of Como, which has taken and deſtroyed the fort of Fuentes.

"The Duke of Modena has given 1000 fuſees with bayonets, and eight pieces of cannon 24 pounders, fifteen pieces 16 pounders, twelve 8 pounders, and fourteen 4 pounders.

"The Imperial Fiefs having revolted, they committed every exceſs. The chief of the brigade Laſne, marched thither with 1200 men; he burned the rebels' houſes, and made the chiefs of them priſoners, who have been ſhot.

"The ſame thing had taken place in the environs of Tortona. I cauſed fifteen chiefs to be arreſted, judged by a military commiſſion, and ſhot.

"To this hour we have no ſick, & that is very well.

LYCEUM OF ARTS.

PUBLIC SITTINGS, OF APRIL 19.

Report of Fanguelin and Legrange, on the new method of tanning, by means of which the beſt quality of leather can be tanned within 10 days or 20 at the moſt, altho' the ſame could not be done formerly in leſs than two or three years. The manufacture eſtabliſhed at Seves, by Sequin, the inventor of the new method, is actually in a ſtate to tan per annum, 88,000 hides of oxen, and 400,000 ſmall hides of cows and calves. [Civic Crown.]

INSPRUCK JUNE 15.

It is certain that the enemy experienced a ſevere check on the 2d, in attempting to croſs the Adige; but the loſs was leſs conſiderable that has been before ſtated. It is eſtimated at 3000 men, from 4 to 500 were cavalry, who endeavored to ſwim over the river.

At this inſtant it is reported that general Beaulieu has completely beat the corps of the French army commanded by gen. Maſſena.

TRENT, JUNE 14.

To-day our army quitted its poſition before Aia, and has advanced ſeveral miles nearer to Verona. When the reinforcements which are on the road are arrived, it will march towards Mantau.

We are informed that the garriſon of that place continues to oppoſe the enemy in the moſt vigorous manner, who beſiege it with a very numerous force; it makes frequent ſorties which are all more or leſs deſtructive to the French: it is even ſaid that in the laſt they retook ſome advanced poſts which the enemy had forced on.

Yeſterday a ſpy arrived at head quarters with intereſting intelligence concerning the affairs in Milaneſe. According to his report, the caſtle of Milan may hold out ſix months longer. All the inhabitants of Lombardy, even thoſe of the loweſt rank ardently deſire to be delivered from the French yoke. The French have put garriſons in all the towns and villages, and they are obliged to be continually on their guard, that they may not experience the irraſcibility of the Italians.

The rigorous meaſures lately employed have ſerved only to irritate the minds of the people in a greater degree. One of thoſe meaſures which has given the greateſt diſpleaſure, is the arreſtation of upwards of 100 of the moſt conſiderable people, who have been conducted to France as hoſtages: they were taken there in peaſants' waggons.

LONDON, JULY 7.

By letters received from Jerſey, we learn, that General Gordon, the commander in chief there, having received intimation that a conſiderable French force had been collected in the neighbourhood of St. Maloes and Granville, and which was daily increaſing, and that all the boats on the coaſt had been put in requiſition, was preparing againſt an attempt upon that iſland, which he had reaſon to believe would ſpeedily be made.

FROM THE VIRGINIA HERALD.

TO THE CITIZEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE VIRGINIA ASSEMBLY.

FELLOW CITIZENS,

THE time being arrived when you are to determine on every ſubject which involves the rights of the people, we deem it proper to call your attention to the ſtate of our Repreſentation—For the baſis of Republicaniſm is Equality.—Upon examining the Conſtitution of this ſtate (if it is one) you will find that the right of ſuffrage is confined to Freehold poſſeſſion. This is an excluſion which exiſting circumſtances will not warrant; for it is evidently an ariſtocratic eſtabliſhment, and belongs not to a republican clime. Let it be alſo remembered, that all orders of men are liable to tax; all are ſubject to be called upon in time of war; of courſe they ought not to loſe their civil exiſtence in the moment of peace. It ought not to be implied that the poſſeſſion of a little land is the only evidence of a man's attachment to his country; nor ought this kind of diſtinction to exiſt in a land which diſclaims all connection with foreign politics, and all diſtinctions which flows from privileges or property. For if property be traced to its origin, it is nothing more than uſurpation. The great maſs which belonged to all was ſeized by a few, and through ſucceſſive ages was it handed one to another, with no better evidence of right than that it was poſſeſſed. As then the evidence of the independence of the diſpoſition is not to be deduced from what kind of property a man poſſeſſes, it were wrong to drive this great principle into annihiliation.—Beſides this, it is a great cauſe of grievance, that repreſentation ſhould be governed by counties, which very commonly induces deciſions contrary to the conſent of the majority, and renders the repreſentation at all times unequal.

Another defect belongs to the executive.——Cannot a Governor, without the concurrence of a Council, attend to all the buſineſs belonging to the department?—Is not this eventuate a ſaving of pence without diminiſhing the proſpect of juſtice?—Theſe are ſubjects ſubmitted to your diſcretion, and ſince they are within the limits of a conſtitutional reform, may we hope that you will accommodate our wiſhes?

TO THE FREEMEN OF VIRGINIA.

It being entirely proper to propoſe amendments to every exiſting regulation which is oppoſed to the general rights of the people, I have ſubmitted the above Petition to your conſideration.—Should you think proper to addreſs the Aſſembly on the propoſed ſubjects, it will be well to commence it in time, and the more univerſal the effort, the greater the proſpect of ſucceſs. Let me then entreat you, my fellow-citizens, to take up the buſineſs diſpaſſionately, and let your petitions be as general as poſſible—Since the motives which have induced this publication may be deduced from my politics at large, I have only to rieterate the neceſſity of a general co-operation.

Accept my reſpects.

Blank Manifeſts for ſale at the Printing Office.

lexandria, September 3.

On Wednesd. last, the Preſident eived R. G. VAN POLANEN, Eſq. Miniſter Reſident of the Batavian public.

The Baron de Steal, Swediſh Amſador in France has publicly notified at all apprehenſions of a rupture beeen Sweden and Ruſſia are at an d. Argus.

The Mechanical ingenuity of the mericans is already diſtinguiſhed and ticed in Europe. Mr. Cox has built ree or four bridges in Ireland. The mpreſs of Ruſſia has ſent to Mr. Whitg of New-England, the builder of e bridge over the Cove at the Rope erry, between Lyme and New-London, to be informed whether he can row a bridge over a river in her doinions, which requires a ſingle ch of 600 feet. He has ſent her a odel for the purpoſe.

An inhabitant of Lyme, we are inrmed, invented a machine for ſhearg cloths, which reduces the labor of o men to that of one. He carried it to ngland, where the manufacturers ofered him £100,000. for the excluſive ight to uſe the machine, or a certain ortion of the ſavings which would be ade by it in their buſineſs, within a ertain number of years. He wrote to America to take advice on the ſubject of theſe offers; and in the mean time died. His heirs have now an agent in England to manage his buſineſs; the reſult is not known.

HE WAS

I don't care a cent what he was—I wiſh to know what he is. People like the Americans, who affect to deſpiſe anceſtry, ought not to uſe the paſt tenſe reſpecting character. What ſignifies it, if Miſs ——— was married to common ſenſe ten years ago, I know that now the poor girl is a widow.

N. E. Paper.

The drought in ſome parts of the Eaſtern ſtates is ſo ſevere, that the paſturage is totally deſtroyed; and farmers are feeding their cattle on hay. The firſt crops were abundant, but the maze will be cut ſhort by the drought.

COMMUNICATION.

The French are exerciſing the rights of conqueſt in Italy—at the ſame time they are fraternizing the people—the poor are to be diſtrained upon as little as poſſible in collecting the requiſitions, ſtill they are not to be exempted. The requiſitions have been more than the whole circulating medium of the countries could balance; hence they have heretofore remitted the deficiencies in numerous inſtances. The rich and middling claſſes will feel that they are ſtripped—the poor, that their pittance is diminiſhed—Fraternization, on ſuch conditions, will appear a dear bargain.

Is it in human nature to be ſo impoſed upon, as to believe that a people can be thus conquered into liberty?

The transfer of the riches of the Grecian States to Rome, and making that proud city the "MUSEUM OF THE WORLD," was compenſated by declaring the Grecian Republics free—What ſort of compenſation that was, ſubſequent facts demonſtrate—Deſpondency, miſery, and ſlavery enſued—and more than two thouſand years have borne teſtimony to the degradation of thoſe once free ſtates. G. U. S.

TRIBUTE OF GRATITUDE.

On the 31ſt January, 1796, at half paſt 7 o'clock in the evening, the American brig Friendſhip, capt. Aſcough, in a violent gale, ſtranded on entering the port of Liſbon. The veſſel ſoon filled with water—in this ſituation we remained until 2 o'clock the next day. The officer commanding the round Caſtle, ſo called, had the goodneſs to exhibit torch lights the whole night. In the morning at ſunriſe he alarmed the Bellum Caſtle and the city by firing ſignal guns. The ſea at this time was ſo boiſterous that no one could be prevailed upon to attempt relieving us. Boats at length were manned and ſent out by public authority, with orders not to return without effecting our relief, under pain of death—notwithſtanding this, the boats after having proceeded, were obſerved to turn and row towards ſhore, on this, ſeveral cannon loaded with ball were fired at them. They then redoubled their exertions, and at length reached the brig and took us out—we had then been up to our arm-pits in water for many hours. We were carried to Liſbon, deſtitute of every thing but the clothes on our backs, thoroughly drenched. As ſoon as we landed we were moſt humanely received by Mr. Jacob Dorhman, merchant of that city, who placed us in comfortable lodgings, and the day following furniſhed us with cloathing. The benevolent, humane, and polite conduct of the Portugueſe officers, and the friendly attention of Mr. Dorhman experienced by us on this trying and critical occaſion could not be exceeded, and demand a more grateful acknowledgment than we are able to expreſs.

AMOS WINDSHIP, for himſelf,
CAPT. ASCOUGH, and people on board.

Philadelphia, Auguſt 25.

The following faſhions are copied from a late London Paper.

"Faſhion. Large noſegays are coming again very much in faſhion; and indeed there is no ornament belonging to a female dreſs more becoming. The infant robe with large and lofty feathers on the head dreſs, and a very large boquet worn on the left ſide of the boſom, is the prevailing dreſs at Ranelagh.

"At the Fandango Ball in Dublin, a certain lady of faſhion appeared in the following whimſical dreſs: fleſh coloured pantaloons over which was a gauze petticoat, tucked up at each ſide in drapery ſo that both things could be ſeen; the binding of the petticoat was tied round the neck, and her arms were through her pocket holes. Her head dreſs was a man's pearl coloured ſtockings the foot hanging down at the back of the head like a lappet, and in the heel of the ſtacking was ſtuck a large diamond pin; the tout enſemble not leſs novel than ludicrous.

From Surinam.

We learn by capt. Lovell that the embargo is off. It continued on for ſixty days. Upwards of fifty ſail of Americans being collected, part of which ſtarted immediately on its ſuſpenſion. The Dutch have a 64, ſeveral frigates, and other armed veſſels at Surinam. Notwithſtanding which, an Engliſh frigate anchored at the mouth of the harbor, and continued there for ſeveral days. The inhabitants of Surinam differ much in political opinion.

NEW-YORK, AUGUST 29.

Extract of a letter from Capt. James Neill, of the brig Mary Ann, dated Cadiz, July 12, 1796, to his owners in New-York, received per the ſhip Factor, Capt. Kemp, juſt arrived from thence.

"Thank God, I am here! for I had a very fortunate eſcape from two Algerines I fell in with off Cape Palos, coming down from Barcelona. They endeavoured to board me, knowing well what I was, by ſhewing my colours, as alſo by ſpeaking a Spaniſh ſhip which was at Solon along with me; but luckily I was near the land, and I got under one of the towers and let go my anchor, which protected me. When the Algerines found I was thus ſituated, they fired a gun to windward and made ſail to the weſtward—I conſidered it would be imprudent and dangerous immediately to follow them, ſo I put into the port of Carthagena, which detained me ſix days.

"I ſhall not be ſurpriſed to hear in a few days, of many of our veſſels being captured and carried into Algiers. There are ſeveral of them in the Mediterranean, and our truce expired on the 6th inſt. and no hopes of its renewal, or any other favourable circumſtance taking place. There is great talk of war commencing between Great-Britain and Spain ſhortly, which I believe will be the caſe. All Engliſh veſſels that are in this port at preſent, are ordered to Gibraltar, and they are to ſail from hence to-morrow, at all events."

When Capt. Kemp, of the Factor, left Cadiz, ſeven French ſhips of the line and three frigates, lay in that port. About 50 ſail of Spaniſh ſhips of war, many of them of the line, were alſo lying there, making PREPARATIONS FOR WAR, which they daily expected. The Engliſh merchant ſhips had been ordered by the Governor of Gibraltar to QUIT CADIZ—they accordingly ſailed for the port of Gibraltar under convoy of an Engliſh frigate: Capt. Kemp ſailed out in company with them. Admiral Richery was ſtill blockaded in the port of Cadiz. Dull market for produce—flour 10 to 12 dollars, beef 18, pork 20 to 21.

By a Halifax paper of Auguſt 11, we learn, that the Britiſh ſhip active, having on board Lord Dorcheſter and family, was caſt away on the Iſland of Anticoſti. The fate of his Lordſhip is not mentioned.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 31.

The Sun of July 11, contains Moreau's official diſpatches to the Directory, dated Kehl, June 24, 25, by which it appears that he had effected the paſſage of the Rhine at Kehl, and eſtabliſhed himſelf there. He concludes a long letter of detail by informing that the bridge between Kehl and the Iſle of the Rhine was juſt compleated, and that the remainder of his army was paſſing it.

The army of Italy had taken the caſtle of Urbino, Fort Ferara, and Bologna, in Ferara 114 pieces of cannon. The details of the above ſucceſſes are given in letters from Buonaparte and Salicetti.

Various accounts to the 1ſt July from the ſame paper mention that ſome diſturbances had taken place, but that tranquility was reſtored. It was reported that the Pope had obtained a a ceſſation of arms at the price of 50 millions of livres, pictures &c. &c.

A Munich head of June 26, mentions, that a courier from Inſpruck brought news of the French having taken Polzen, ſecured the paſſage of Schultz and advanced into the vallies of Frieſter and Munſter.

A Bruſſels head of July 1, ſtates the archduke Charles to be near Duſſeldorff. The French were in poſſeſſion of the citadel of Ancona before the 26th of June.

Paris dates of the 5th July, ſay, we have certainly taken poſſeſſion of Leghorn, Ancona and Bivita-Fecchia. It is ſaid that at Leghorn, we took from the Engliſh ſhipping &c. to the amount of 60 millions.

The miniſters of the King of Naples and the Pope had arrived at Paris.

BALTIMORE, SEPTEMBER 1.

The pilot who brought up the Frederica & Henriette informs, that on Sunday laſt, about 2 o'clock P. M. a French 64 gun ſhip and two frigates (ſuppoſed to be Capt. Barney) ſtanding eaſtward, and immediately after ſaw ſix Britiſh ſhips of war within ſight of land to eaſtward of Cape Henry; one of the Britiſh veſſels, a frigate, being a conſiderable diſtance in advance of the others, threw out ſignals and fired five guns, upon which the others crouded all ſail and followed her: at this time there was a calm, but a ſtir breeze ſpringing up, the Britiſh were wafted within full half ſight of the French before the breeze overtook them; in this ſituation our informant loſt ſight of them.

NORFOLK, AUGUST 29.

By a pilot arrived in town this morning, we learn of the arrival of Capt. Barney off our capes, with a 74 and two 74's cut down to 50 gun ſhips; they came along the coaſt from the ſouthward, in company with ſeveral American ſchooners, and made the capes yeſterday afternoon. There were two Britiſh frigates and a brig to the eaſtward of the Capes, who on diſcovering them ſtood off ſhore N. E. and the French ſhips crowded ſail and ſtood after them; when laſt ſeen, they were but a ſhort diſtance apart.

On Thurſday the 6th day of October next, will be ſold to the higheſt bidder on 12 months credit,

A large ſtock of Horſes,

Cattle, Sheep and Hogs. Alſo, the Plantation Utenſils, &c. &c. At the ſame time will be ſold for ready money,

Two Negro Men,

the eſtate of the late Mr. William Ellzey, dec'd. of Loudoun. The ſale will begin at the manſion houſe of the dec'd. and when all is ſold at that place, it will be continued on the following day at the plantation on Broad Run.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the ſubſcriber when in Auguſta County, on his way to Kentucky, in the month of March '95, a negro woman named HANNAH, a mulatto, about 24 years of age, likely and ſpare made, middle ſize, and has a ſcar on her left arm juſt above her wriſt; ſhe was purchaſed by the ſubſcriber of Robert M'Dowell of Staunton, and ſhe originally came from Col. Lyle's of Alexandria, where ſhe was brought up, and I underſtand ſhe has two brother carpenters, living with Mr. Charles Lee of Alexandria, where her mother reſides, and it is probable ſhe may have gone to them.—She was committed to the goal of the town of Peterſburg in the month of Auguſt '95, but has ſince made her eſcape. Whoever will take up the ſaid woman and lodge her in any gaol, and give information of the ſame to Peter Herſchell of Staunton, ſo that he gets her again, ſhall receive the above reward, and alſo all reaſonable charges if delivered to the ſaid Peter Herſchell in Staunton. SONG,

BY R. BURNS.

What tho' on homely fare we dine,
Wear hoddin grey, an' a' that,
Gie fools their silk and knaves their wine,
A man's a man for a' that.
For a' that, an' a' that,
Their tinsel show an' a' that:
An honest man, tho' ne'er sae poor,
Is chief of man for a' that.

You see yon birkie, ca'd a LORD,
What struts and stares, an' a' that,
Tho' hundreds beckon at his nod,
He's but a CUIF for a' that.
For a' that, an' a' that,
His dignities an' a' that;
A man of independent mind,
Can sing and laugh at a' that.

The KING can make a belted Knight,
A Marquis, Duke, an' a' that,
But an honest man's aboon his might,
Gude faith he manna fa' that.
An' a' that, an' a' that,
His garters, stars, an' a' that,
The pitch of sense an' wail of worth
Are better far than a' that.

Then let us pray the time may come,
An' come it will for a' that,
When sense an' truth o'er a' the earth
Shall bear the gree for a' that,
For a' that, an' a' that,
An' come it will for a' that,
An' man to man the world o'er,
Shall brothers be for a' that.

Lands for Sale.

THAT valuable and well known tract of Land in Loudoun County, called the Long Glade, whereon Joel White lived for several years, and lying on the main road, leading from the town of Alexandria to Leesburg, being twenty two miles from the former, eighteen miles from George Town and the Federal city, and about three miles from the Great Falls of Potowmac, where a new Town has been laid out, and considerable improvements already made. This tract contains thirteen hundred and twenty seven acres, is well timbered, the soil of an excellent quality for farming, and has a large proportion of fine meadow ground. There is a never failing stream of water running thro' the land with a good mill seat on it. It is clear of all incumbrances, and an indisputeable title will be made to the purchaser, who, by paying a part of the purchase money in hand, may have a long credit, and easy payments, for the ballance, for terms apply to Col. Charles Little, in Fairfax County, near the Falls Church, or to the subscribers in Alexandria. Possession will be given at Christmas.

Wm. WILSON,
Wm. HERBERT.

August 8. 1mep.

A VERY VALUABLE MERCHANT MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term not less than seven, or more than eleven years, from the first day of September next. The Mill house is 42 by 40 feet, three stories high, built with stone, and has in it a pair of French burr stons, two overshot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and necessary for carrying on the business with dispatch, and at as little expence as possible all in good order.—From the mill to the landing on the Potomac river, (where craft of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Washington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This situation aided by a sufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extensive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the distance to it being from 8 to 10 miles less, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premisses a large stone Cooper's shop, a stone granery and a commodious Miller's house. At the landing aforesaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardness and probably will be finished the ensuing Fall.

There are also on the premises a Brewery and Distillery built with stone, in them are three stills, two coppers or boilers, with every necessary article, all new, and in good order, and sufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Distillery, upon a very extensive plan. This property I will rent for the same term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premises, and along the banks of the river, where crafts may load with ease and dispatch, is an immense quantity of building and foundation stones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with ease, the stone taken from these quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other stone brought to it. I will rent these quarries seperately or together as may best suit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill is a stone Dwelling house, large enough for the accommodation of a family, also, a kitchen, Dairy, smoke house, &c. and a garden enclosed, and in cultivation, the soil of which is equal in goodness to any in this state. I will also rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Distillery is a Smith's shop in which is a complete set of Blacksmith's tools, which I will also rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blacksmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the stone quarries, I will sell three crafts which were built for the purpose of carrying stone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate possession will be given, for terms apply to the subscriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Distillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and must be so returned, at the expiration of the lease or leases.

PHILIP RICHARD FENDALL.

Alex. August 16.

THE subscriber being duly authorised will receive proposals for the purchase of the valuable real Estate in this town, late the property of Gen. Walter Stewart, deceased. It consists of a large front on West Landing, containing 210½ feet, with a first and second part of Frog Land before the same, on which are built convenient wharves, &c. Part of these premises run through to Fall's street, having a front thereon of 62 feet, the remainder have different but considerable depths. On this estate are sundry small stone, brick & frame houses, all under rent, together with a most capital brick mansion-house and stores, 57 feet by 40 exclusive of the kitchen and other back buildings, erected but a very few years since, now in the occupation of Mr. Adam Murray Stewart; adjoining is another building begun and carried up nearly to the first story. As an extentive credit may be had for a part of the purchase money, it is expected no gentleman will come forward without offering a price suitable to the value of this property, which in every view, and particularly as a stand for business is not excelled by any in the town. Please apply to Mr. Adam M. Stewart on the premises, or to me at my lodgings Union Hotel.

Pursuant to a decree of the Court of the County of Westmoreland, to us directed, we will proceed to sell about upon a credit of twelve months, lying about a mile above Leeds town, upon Rappahannock, River, on Tuesday 20th day of September next. The place was the residence of the late John Washington, Esq. known by the name of Liberty. The soil is very fertile, particularly for the production of Indian Corn, and profitable crops of small grain have been made upon it; very extensive marshes are near, and the place itself affords such improveable meadow ground that the proprietors may keep very large stock of all kind. There is on this plantation a good dwelling house with four rooms on the lower floor and two above, and out houses, and it abounds with fine springs. An accurate survey will be shewn at the sale, and it will be rquired that the purchasers shall execute bonds for six equal sums payable to each of the distributors or their guardians who are entitled to the money arising from the sales.

Three hundred and eighty acres of land

STATE OF MARYLAND.

Robert Ferguson & others, vs. Robert Carter and Hebe, his wife, George Grayson, Robert Grayson, Alfred Graysons and others, heirs of William Smallwood, of Charles County, late deceased. } In Chancery August 11th 1796.

THE object of the complainant's bill is to obtain a decree for the sale of the real Estate of William Smallwood, late of Charles County, deceased, or so much thereof, as is necessary for the payment of the debts of the deceased. And it appearing to the Chancellor as stated in the bill, that Robert Carter, and Hebe his wife, Robert Grayson, Alfred Grayson, and George Grayson are respectively residents of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and without the process of this Court, and that the said Hebe, George, Robert, and Alfred, infants and others are interested in the said real Estate, which descended to them as heir at law of the deceased. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant cause a copy of this order to be published at least three weeks successively in the Newspapers of Edwards and Co. of Baltimore Town, and in some one of the Alexandria news papers, before the first day of October next, to the intent, that the guardian or guardians of the said defendants, or that such of the defendants as are of free age may have notice of their (the said complainants) application to this court, and may be warned to appear here on or before the 1st Tuesday in November next, to shew cause, if any they be, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed by the bill.
